He told him to go to Mars and see what happened there and what can be done about it. He finds a tablet at the jetty station. It's from the previous "kid that ran". It tells him that he needs to steal the dragon egg from the arena and he will need to find the "moccasins of light". He needs to tell someone what he found and he is the one person that can help him do that. They fly to a city. Some woman calls for help. When she arrived she found her daughter dead on her bed. The guy tells her to climb up to the top of a tower. When there he found a bunch of dead body. He finds a list with names and numbers and he found a wooden box near the dead body. The list include people like him, with different name and numbers but from different characters and countries. He also found another box. It's from an elf and when opened he finds a moccasin from the town. The elf and the man had the same problem, the fear that they are being followed. Then he remembers the story and looks at his tablet and saw an empty hole in the box. And he also found a picture of the city when it was still with the name of the town. He fly to the arena and he finds the egg. Then he fly to the village and he find the moccasins and runs away and he is running to the man on the horse. The man on the horse see the man running and chases after him. When they catch him the man on the horse ask him to explain what he is doing. The man on the horse ask him to explain where he is going and what is his plan. The man on the horse says it's probably not a good plan to go to Mars and he suggests
